

Intercultural Pastoral Care and Counselling

The Magazine of

SIPCC
Society for Intercultural
Pastoral Care and Counselling

Editorial Committee

Dr. Karl Federschmidt
(chair)
Ulrike Atkins
Klaus Temme
Helmut Weiss

Office

Helmut Weiss
Friederike-Flidner-Weg 72
40489 Düsseldorf

Tel. 0211-479 05 25
Fax 0211-479 05 26
e-mail:
hewe.sipcc@t-online.de

Nr. 6
"READING THE CITY"

Perceiving life-spaces for diversity and community

Düsseldorf, August 2000

Editors of this issue
Klaus Temme and
Helmut Weiß

A German version of this issue
is published under the title:
"Stadt lesen"
Lebensräume für Vielfalt und Gemeinschaft

ISSN: 1431 - 8954

Part I
"Reading the City"
On perceiving 'city'

Wolfgang Grünberg
'City' - Living Space and Form of Life 3 - 8

Michael A. Mata
A Reading from the Urban Text
Challenges and Possibilities of Diversity for Pastoral Care 9 - 15

Stephan de Beer
Nurturing and Building Community
The Challenge of Pastoral Care in Urban South Africa 16 - 22

Part II
Fragmentations in Urban Societies
rich and poor
individualism and community

Ronaldo Sathler-Rosa
Pastoral Action in a context of
Economic Slavery and Cultural Apathy 23 - 28

Elaine Graham
Globalization, Social Exclusion and the Politics of New Labour in Britain:
How can this mean good news
for the poor? 29 - 38

Nalini Arles
Living in Differences and Tensions of the Self
Some remarks on overt and covert tensions in urban societies in India 39 - 45

Part III
Building Communities through
Care and Action

James R. Farris
Faith and Community:
Reflections on Fragmentation, Suffering and Gospel 46 - 52

Daisy N. Nwachuku
Creating Communities through Pastoral Care and Counselling in the Fragmentations of Urban African Life 53 - 59

The Authors 60